MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel
Director of Training
Inspector General
Director of Planning, Programming, and Budgeting

SUBJECT : Utilization of the Management Advisory Group

1. I met with the Management Advisory Group last week to answer a number of their questions. They have several self-generated concerns which they are exploring and a few projects under way. Nevertheless, during the course of our discussion it became clear that they would welcome opportunities to offer views and/or recommendations on topics of current concern to management. In other words, they hope that from time to time we will bounce ideas or problems off them for quick reaction. I welcomed this suggestion and plan to pursue it in the weeks ahead.

2. MAG has no collective expertise other than being an assembled group representing a cross section of outstanding young officers. Please keep the above in mind and offer topics I might forward to MAG for their review and advice.
